

Safeguarding in the Viola da Gamba Society

The Viola da Gamba Society is responsible for safeguarding the people who come into contact with it. This means that we have a duty to protect members who volunteer for us, and members and the wider public who come to our meetings from harassment, bullying and exploitation. Our meetings are open to all. We are delighted to welcome children, but they must come with, or with the permission of, a parent or carer.

Anyone who has any concerns about any aspect of safeguarding within the society should raise it, in confidence, with the chair or another member of the committee. Please do not hesitate to do so, as it is much better to sort out problems and worries at an early stage. Contact information for all committee members is available in the members' list.
